The qualitative price introduction! The afternative for communal catering

We only use high-quality chicken breast fillets for our formed products. As the meat is coarsely ground, the products retain an almost authentic mouthfeel and a typical appearance when sliced. Thanks to the high-quality raw material and the use of our own fillings, the formed products meet the quality criteria of the HANNA premium products. These items can be used for a wide variety of applications and therefore feature in most of our product lines both cooked and uncooked, and are an attractively priced alternative to regular chicken breast fillets.
